

Speaker Profile: Mr. Imran Shaikh

Imran Shaikh is the Advisor to ‘Yagna Entrepreneur Success Services LLP’ [YAGNA] a management consulting company which believes that by partnering with Industries & working towards their rapid success, we can make a positive impact on the Indian economy. He is also the Founder of ‘Profound Consulting’ a management consulting company which is into transforming organizations by achieving operational excellence coupled with significant growth in their profits.

Imran has a rich Industry experience of more than 20 years. He worked at various leadership roles in organizations like Qucon, Videocon, and Cummins group – Fleet guard & has experience in Engines, Thermal Management, FMCG, and Automotive Industries. Set-up Green & brown field manufacturing facilities. Grew business acquiring many customers in India & Globally & has improved the multi-location operations significantly. Has experience of setting-up distribution set-up for Indian Automotive Aftermarket.

Transformed his Organisation & Supply Chains by leading implementation of various best practices & Theory of Constraints [TOC] resulting in it becoming the No. 1 Organisation in its segment in terms of operational excellence & financials.

Imran is a Mechanical Engineer, Certified Lean Six Sigma Black Belt, Certified Theory of Constraints [TOC] Practitioner, QMS Auditor & a Senior Member of American Society for Quality. He has been sharing his knowledge & experiences through various forums at ACMA, IIMM, CII & others.

Personal attributes – Believes that every situation can be challenged. Speed & Quality of decision is key. Believes in working on Process measures to achieve Result measures.