

Mr. Vivek Vijay Sarkale
Information Security Consultant
DSCI

Mr. Vivek Vijay Sarkale is currently working with Data Security Council of India as an Information Security Consultant & Leading Threat Intelligence & Research Initiative for DSCI. Previously he worked as a Data Scientist and Security Researcher – at Open Cloud Institute, Rackspace Cloud in San Antonio, Texas. During his tenure, he provided machine learning, deep learning solution for web security and successfully worked on projects such as cloud containerization security, IOT device security in automation. He has special interest in technology research which includes- Cloud Computing, Internet of Things, AI-Deep Learning, Data Analytics, Parallel Computing, Critical Infrastructure Security, Threat Hunting and PII Protection. Vivek has been speaking in several national and international conferences such as BPM, FINSEC Conclave, Nullcon and OpenStack Summit. Vivek has 5 years diverse Industry Experience.

Coming to his academic qualification, he holds bachelor's degree (B.Tech) in Information technology from highly prestigious Anna University, Chennai. He has completed his Masters (MS) from University of Texas, San Antonio in Computer Science, and specialized in Computer and Information Security and Software Engineering. As part of Research, he has successfully published 2 international research papers at conferences held at New York & San Antonio. He is currently writing a book on “Cloud Virtualization Security” with prestigious German book publishing company.