8th June 2021

Dear Member,

First Townhall with ACMA Past Presidents
Theme: Surviving Disruptions: Lessons on Business Continuity
Monday, 28th June 2021: 3.30 to 5.00 p.m. (Virtual Platform)

The automotive industry of India has played a very crucial role in shaping the Indian economy into a manufacturing hub during the last four decades and supported in large creation of job opportunities in the country.

Our industry has undergone many challenging situations and has witnessed technological challenges & changes during these four decades of shaping-up of our industry. The various disruptions currently faced by the industry are expected to bring-in crucial radical changes in the industry.

With this background, ACMA Northern Region is taking yet another new initiative of bringing-in our thought leaders to deliberate on this transition on a single platform with the new initiative of "Townhall with ACMA Past Presidents" and commencing the first-ever Townhall with the theme of "Surviving Disruptions: Lessons on Business Continuity" on Monday, 28th June 2021 from 3.30 to 5.00 p.m.

The Following Past Presidents have confirmed to be the Panellists at the session where they will share their thoughts and perspective on the topic and their vision for the way forward for our component industry. As you are aware, they have played a significant role in carving the current picture of the industry, as the doyen and visionary leaders of the automotive industry.
