ACMA welcomes Bharat New Car Assessment Program (BNCAP)

New Delhi, 07 August 2023: Automotive Component Manufacturers Association of India (ACMA), the apex body representing India's Auto Component manufacturing industry applauds the launch of BNCAP by the Ministry of Road Transport & Highways (MoRTH), Government of India.

Thanking the Mr Nitin Gadkari, Union Minister, MoRTH, for this transformative path-breaking initiative towards safer vehicles in India, Mr Vinnie Mehta, Director General ACMA Commented, "The launch of BNCAP protocol is indeed historic. It will lead to integration of advanced safety features in vehicles thus minimising the risk of road accidents and fatalities. This initiative will not only bolster auto component industry's value chain but will also stimulate production of cutting-edge components, encourage innovation and create global excellence. We anticipate a safer automotive landscape and a future where Indian auto component manufacturers thrive on the global stage, while also contributing to responsible driving practices, reduced healthcare burdens, and potential incentives from the insurance sector. The Indian Auto Component Industry embraces this initiative wholeheartedly, recognizing its pivotal role in driving growth and global competitiveness".
